- 14.3.6. The selection process relevant to the recruitment of new Board members includes the consideration on the independence of the candidate with reference to various factors relevant to assessing independence on a substance-over-form basis. This approach is subject to overall consideration of whether there is any interest, position, association or relationship that, when judged from the perspective of a reasonable and informed third party, is likely to influence unduly or cause bias in decision-making in the best interests of Sanlam.

14.8 Board and director appraisal

- 14.8.1 Formal evaluations of directors are to be conducted by the Chair annually, and the Chair shall obtain the counsel of the Nominations Committee in fulfilling this task.

- 14.8.4 This will also form the basis for the Board to identify key objectives for the effective functioning of the Board during the subsequent financial year. The Board should schedule an opportunity for consideration, reflection and discussion of the results of these formal performance evaluations, as part of its consideration of its annual Board plan.
- 14.8.5 A Board evaluation should be conducted biannually and may be conducted by an external service provider.

14.9 Disqualification of directors

- 14.9.1 The Companies Act and Sanlam's MOI set out the grounds for the disqualification of directors, which include (but is not limited to) insolvency, unsound mind and non-attendance of meetings.

14.10 Indemnities and insurance

- 14.10.1 Sanlam will provide the Board and Committee members with (and will pay the premiums for) the indemnification and insurance cover while acting in their capacity as members, to the fullest extent permitted by the Companies Act.
- 14.10.2 The level of cover provided will be decided upon by the Board after considering proposals in this regard, upon recommendation from its Audit and Risk Committees respectively.

15 BOARD FUNCTIONARIES

15.1 Chair

15.1.1 Appointment

The Board will appoint from amongst the Board members a Chair, who is preferably an independent non-executive director.

15.1.2 Role

The primary role of the Chair is to

- 15.1.2.1 Set the ethical tone for the Board and Sanlam.

decisions, whilst at the same time being aware of the individual duties of Board members.

- 15.1.2.3 Set the tone for the Board's performance and undertake same to management.
- 15.1.2.4 Ensure that focus is maintained by the Board on what is best for Sanlam and that the tone for Sanlam's success is set.

The Chair will represent Sanlam at:

- 15.1.3.1 The AGM and other shareholder meetings – i.e., particularly taking the lead in discussions with shareholders at such meetings or other interventions. - 15.1.3.4 Being present/participating in industry engagements conferences and the like, as and where necessary and appropriate to represent Sanlam.
- 15.1.3.5 Play an active role in engaging the directors and building their strengths and addressing any weaknesses in the Board's performance, which could as a result impact on Sanlam's performance and reputation;
- 15.1.3.6 The Chair should also be expected to play a leading role in supporting the Group CEO in the process of developing the Company's vision and goals before their presentation to the Board, Sanlam's strategic direction and planning process before its presentation to the Board and ensuring adherence by Sanlam to both the letter and the spirit of the law.

15.1.4 The Chair has the following responsibilities in relation to the Sanlam Board:

- 15.1.4.1 Provide overall leadership to the Board;
- 15.1.4.2 Manage conflicts of interests. Chair must ask affected Board members to recuse themselves from discussions and decisions in which they have a perceived or actual conflict of interest, unless they are requested to provide specific input, in which event they should not be party to the decision;
- 15.1.4.3 Oversee that the Board leads ethically and effectively and that the Company conducts itself in a way that cultivates and exhibits the characteristics of integrity, competence, responsibility, accountability, fairness and transparency;

- 15.1.4.4 Participate in the selection process for Board members (via the Nominations Committee), and overseeing a formal succession plan for the Board, the Chair, the Group CEO, the FD and other executives;
- 15.1.4.5 Taking the lead in the allocation of Board members to Board Committees including the appointment of the respective Committees' Chairs;
- 15.1.4.6 Ensuring clarity of mandate and effectiveness of the Board Committees;
- 15.1.4.7 Encouraging good working relations, teamwork and collaboration among Board members without inhibiting candid debate and creative tension;
- 15.1.4.8 Overseeing the continued appropriateness of Board approved policies that relate to identification, disclosure and management of conflicts of interest situations that may arise for Board members in performance of their governance roles and functions, and for members of the executive team in performance of their executive roles and functions.
- 15.1.4.9 Ensuring that Board members contribute fully to the effective and objective discharge of the Board's role and duties;
- 15.1.4.10 Take the lead in ensuring the evaluation of the Board, its members, the Chairs of its Committees as well as the respective Board Committees in addressing non-performance of members of the Board and if and when necessary, the removal of unsuitable Board members from the Board;
- 15.1.4.11 Mentoring newly appointed/younger/less experienced Board members to develop skills and enhance confidence;
- 15.1.4.12 Oversee that newly appointed Board members are appropriately made aware of their responsibilities through an induction and orientation programme;
- 15.1.4.13 Keeping the members of the Board suitably informed of significant issues between meetings;
- 15.1.4.14 Ensuring that the Board fulfils its duty to steer and set strategic direction (including same for the governance structures), approving policy and planning, overseeing the organisation and monitoring and ensuring accountability, which results in ethical culture, good performance, effective control and legitimacy;
- 15.1.4.15 Ensuring that good relations are maintained with Sanlam's major shareholders and other material stakeholders.

15.1.5 The Chair has the following responsibilities in relation to management:

- 15.1.5.1 To act as the link between the Board and the Group CEO;
- 15.1.5.2 Encourage good working relations with management whilst at the same time, maintaining an arm's length relationship;
- 15.1.5.3 Perform the performance appraisal of the Group CEO (in consultation with the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee) and be informed of performance appraisal findings of other executives;
- 15.1.5.4 Assess whether Sanlam is getting the full value from the executives;

- 15.1.5.5 Act as confidante/sounding board and provide counsel to the Group CEO. The Chair will have no executive functions. He/she will act as the main link between the Board and management and particularly between the Board and the Group CEO, as no company is likely to run effectively and efficiently unless there is a good working relationship between the Chair and the CEO. This includes the Chair and CEO respecting each other's responsibility and abilities as well as personal qualities;
- 15.1.5.6 Offer guidance during times of crisis;
- 15.1.5.7 Overseeing the performance and acting as the contact/reporting point for the Group Company Secretary or the professional providing governance services to the Board in respect of the discharge of statutory duties and other duties performed for the Board;
- 15.1.5.8 The Chair, along with all other directors, should recognise that the Group CEO is responsible for leading the implementation and execution of the approved strategy, policy and operational planning and should not expect, as a right and/or entitlement, to become involved in the Company's day-to-day operations;
- 15.1.5.9 Because of their particular relationship, the Chair should nevertheless -
 - 15.1.5.9.1 Expect to be kept informed by the Group CEO of all such important matters as emerging problems, risks, potentially good or bad publicity, investment and divestment proposals, funding issues and current performance; and
 - 15.1.5.9.2 Issues of concern to the Group CEO or the Chair should be discussed at liberty;
- 15.1.5.10 Ensure that the Group CEO understands and properly performs his/her role in the relationship;
- 15.1.5.11 In addition to having an effective working relationship with the Group CEO, the Chair should have free access to discuss financial funding and performance issues directly with the Finance Director. The Group CEO should, however, be made aware of such discussions;
- 15.1.5.12 Give assistance and advice when needed, especially on sensitive matters which the Group CEO feels unable to discuss with other executives;
- 15.1.5.13 Ensure that he/she is sufficiently familiar with Company activities and senior management so that he/she is in a position to provide the Board with independent comment on the Group CEO's reports;
- 15.1.5.14 Keep himself fully informed of trends and changes in the finance and insurance industries and Sanlam's operating environment, both locally and internationally. He/she should generally also stay more informed of the Company's business and strategy than other directors. To achieve this, the Chair will be invited to attend strategy and budget setting meetings. At these meetings the Chair will act as an observer, sounding board and adviser, but not as a member of the executive team.

15.1.6 The Chair has the following responsibilities in relation to meetings of the Board:

- 15.1.6.1 Preside over Board meetings and ensure that the time spent at meetings, is used productively;

- 15.1.6.2 Exercise judgment as to when additional interventions and/or additional meetings of the Company may be required and the format thereof;
- 15.1.6.3 Ensure that complete, timely, relevant, accurate, and appropriately assured information is placed before the Board to enable the Board members to reach informed decisions;
- 15.1.6.4 Hold rigorous standards of preparation for Board meetings, by (for example) meeting with the Group Company Secretary and Group CEO before meetings and studying the meeting information packs prior to distribution;
- 15.1.6.5 Formulate (with the Group CEO, Group Company Secretary and/or other professionals providing corporate governance services) the annual Board plan against agreed objectives, and playing an active part in setting the agenda for Board meetings;
- 15.1.6.6 Ensure that sufficient time and effort has been devoted to preparation for meetings by Board members;
- 15.1.6.7 Ensure that those Board members present, constitute a quorum at meetings before decisions are taken;
- 15.1.6.8 Ensure that an effective Group Company Secretary or other governance professional is in place to support the Board;
- 15.1.6.9 Ensure that decisions by the Board are suitably recorded in the minutes and executed accordingly;
- 15.1.6.10 Determine when independent professional advice may be necessary and ensuring that this is procured within the approved protocol;
- 15.1.7 In order to determine whether the Chair is able to perform his/her duties effectively, the Nominations Committee (in consultation with the Board), should determine the number of outside professional positions that the Chair is allowed to hold, taking account of the relative size and complexity of those positions held in other organisations and the potential for conflicts of interest across the roles.
- 15.1.8 The Chair:
 - 15.1.8.1 Should not be a member of the Audit Committee;
 - 15.1.8.2 May be a member of the HRRC Committee, but not its Chair;
 - 15.1.8.3 Should be a member of the Nominations Committee and may be its Chair if she/he is independent, failing which an independent non-executive director will be appointed as the Chair of the Nominations Committee.
 - 15.1.8.4 May be a member of the Committee responsible for Risk governance;
 - 15.1.8.5 May be a member of the SES Committee, but not its Chair;
 - 15.1.8.6 Should be a member of the INED Committee and should be its Chair if he/she is independent, failing which an independent non-executive director will be appointed as the Chair of the INED Committee; and
 - 15.1.8.7 Should be a member of the NED Committee and may be its chair if he/she is a non-executive director.
- 15.1.9 The Chair has the following responsibilities in relation to the stakeholder relationships:
 - 15.1.9.1 The Chair should preside over each of the Company's AGMs and all other shareholder meetings. All directors should be available at the AGM to respond to shareholders and other stakeholders' queries on how the Board executed its

- governance duties;
- 15.1.9.2 However, the responsibility of reporting on the detail of the business to shareholders is mostly that of the Group CEO, assisted by the Finance Director;
- 15.1.9.3 The Chair should be invited to all shareholder presentations, especially presentations to institutional investors as well as presentations to investment analysts;
- 15.1.9.4 The Board should ensure that shareholders are equitably treated and that the interests of minority shareholders, are adequately protected.

15.1.10 Other relationships:

- 15.1.10.1 The Chair can be called upon to visit, meet or entertain clients, employees, regulators or other people who are important key stakeholders of Sanlam. He/she may have to make speeches or negotiate on occasions on behalf of the Company;
- 15.1.10.2 Sanlam is affiliated to a number of business organisations, and the Group CEO is its first choice as representative at these organisations. However, the Chair may, from time to time, represent the Company at these organisations where he/she and the Group CEO agree on such representation;
- 15.1.10.3 The Sanlam Board requires the firm and objective leadership of a Chair who ensures that all directors, executives and non-executives alike, are enabled to fulfill their respective roles in the Board's activities;
- 15.1.10.4 The Chair's role is to lead the Board in the objective and effective discharge of its governance role and responsibilities;
- 15.1.10.5 The Chair's primary function is to preside over meetings of directors and to ensure the smooth running of the Board, in the interests of good governance;
- 15.1.10.6 The position of Chair of Sanlam, being a major financial institution, requires a fundamental understanding and strong knowledge of finance and financial risk relevant to the institution and the industry in which it operates. The Chair is also expected to represent the Company on business and industry organisations.

15.2 Deputy Chair

- 15.2.1 The Board shall appoint the Deputy Chair who will deputise the Chair at meetings during the Chair's absence.

15.3 Group Chief Executive Officer ("Group CEO")

15.3.1 Appointment

The Group CEO shall be appointed (and/or removed) by the Board.

15.3.2 Responsibilities

- 15.3.2.1 The task of the Group CEO is to run the business, implement and execute approved policies, strategies and operational plans as adopted by the Board and act as a chief link between management and the Board. All Board authority conferred on management is delegated through the Group CEO, so that the authority and accountability of management is regarded as the authority and accountability of the Group CEO insofar as the Board is concerned.
- 15.3.2.2 The Chair, in consultation with the Board, shall set certain specific targets directed at achieving Sanlam's goals and business objectives and an appropriate delegation of authority to the Group CEO to ensure that the targets are achieved. The Group CEO shall act within the specific authorities delegated to him or her by the Board in terms of the Board Authorisation Framework.

- 15.3.2.3 The Board shall annually via the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee evaluate the Group CEO's performance as it relates to achieving specific targets identified by the Board.
- 15.3.2.4 Without in any way limiting the obligations of the Group CEO as determined in his/her contract of employment, the Group CEO shall, in particular, be responsible for:
 - 15.3.2.4.1 Ensuring the growth and profitability of Sanlam within the vision, goals and strategic direction approved by the Board;
 - 15.3.2.4.2 Making sure that the assets of Sanlam are adequately maintained and safeguarded, and not unnecessarily placed at risk;
 - 15.3.2.4.3 Ensuring that the comprehensive and appropriate internal control mechanisms are recommended to and adopted by the Board in order to mitigate against key risks;
 - 15.3.2.4.4 Not causing or permitting any practice, activity or decision by or within Sanlam that is contrary to commonly accepted good business practices, good corporate governance or professional ethics;
 - 15.3.2.4.5 Communicating to the Board, at least annually, regarding Sanlam's senior management succession plans and management development initiatives, including details of the Company's compliance with employment equity and human capital development imperatives;
 - 15.3.2.4.6 Developing and growing Sanlam's human capital;
 - 15.3.2.4.7 The Group CEO should maintain a positive and ethical work climate that is conducive to attracting, retaining and motivating a diverse group of top quality employees at all levels of Sanlam, and serve as the chief spokesperson for the Sanlam Group;
 - 15.3.2.4.8 It is the Group CEO's responsibility to be accountable and report to the Board and not just to the Chair for his/her performance.

15.3.3 CEO's Appraisal

- 15.3.3.1 The Chair, with the assistance of the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee, appraises the performance of the Group CEO at least on an annual basis in order to ensure that the Group CEO is providing the best leadership for the Company in the short- to long term.
- 15.3.3.2 The Human Resources and Remuneration Committee should publish an annual report to the Board on succession planning.
- 15.3.3.3 The entire Board will work with the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee and the Nominations Committee, to nominate and evaluate potential successors to the Group

CEO.

15.3.4 General

- 15.3.4.1 The Group CEO has a critical and strategic role to play in the operational success of Sanlam's business. The close relationship between the Chair, the company and its industry makes it absolutely essential that there be a clear understanding and role clarity in respect of the Group CEO.
- 15.3.4.2 There should accordingly be a clear division of responsibilities between these two roles to ensure a balance of power and authority, such that no individual has unfettered powers of decision-making. Therefore, the roles of Chair and Group CEO should be separate, with responsibilities divided between them.
- 15.3.4.3 Subject to the provisions of King IV™, the Group CEO should not become the Chair of the Board, and the retired Group CEO should preferably not become the Chair of the Board until 3 (three) complete years have passed after the end of the Group CEO's tenure.
- 15.3.4.4 The Group CEO and the Board should agree on whether the Group CEO takes up additional professional positions, including membership of other boards outside of the Sanlam Group, including consideration of the potential for those appointments to introduce time constraints and/or potential conflicts of interest for performance of the Group CEO role for Sanlam.

16 EXECUTIVE AND NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

- 16.1 Every director has a legal duty to act independently, in good faith, with due care and skill, and without fetter or instruction.
- 16.2 Non-executive directors may be categorised as "independent" if the Board concludes that there is no interest, position, association or relationship which, when judged from the perspective of a reasonable and informed third party, is likely to influence unduly or cause bias in decision-making in Sanlam's best interests.
- 16.3 The Board should consider the following and other indicators holistically not specifically mentioned hereunder, and on a substance over form basis, when assessing the independence of a director for purposes of categorisation – i.e. whether the director:
 - 16.2.1 Is a significant provider of financial capital, or ongoing funding to Sanlam; or is an officer, employee or a representative of such provider of financial capital or funding;
 - 16.2.2 Owns securities in Sanlam, the value of which is material to the personal wealth of the director;
 - 16.2.3 Has been in the employ of Sanlam as an executive manager during the preceding 3 (three) financial years, or is a related party to such executive manager;
 - 16.2.4 Has been the designated external auditor responsible for performing the statutory joint audit for Sanlam, or a key member of the audit team of the external joint audit firms, during the preceding 3 (three) financial years;
 - 16.2.5 Is a representative of a shareholder who has the ability to control or significantly influence management;
 - 16.2.6 Has a direct or indirect interest in Sanlam which exceeds 5% of the Group's total number of shares in issue;
 - 16.2.7 Has a direct or indirect interest in Sanlam, which is less than 5% of the Group's total number of shares in issue but is material to his personal

- wealth;
- 16.2.8 Is a member of the immediate family of an individual who is, or has been in any of the past 3 (three) financial years, employed by Sanlam or the Group in an executive capacity;
- 16.2.9 Is a professional advisor to Sanlam or the Group, other than in a director capacity and has no significant contractual relationship with Sanlam or the Group;
- 16.2.10 Is in any business or other relationship that could be seen by an objective outsider to materially interfere with the individual's capacity to act in an independent manner such as being a director of a supplier to, or customer of Sanlam or the Group;
- 16.2.11 Receives remuneration contingent upon the performance of Sanlam and participate in any of Sanlam's incentive schemes;
- 16.2.12 Whose independence of character and judgment is in any way affected or impaired by the length of his/her service as a director of Sanlam.
- 16.3 All directors, both executive and non-executive, are bound by fiduciary duties of care and always acting with diligence.
- 16.4 Non-executive directors perform such duties intermittently and have less regular access to the books and records than executive directors. Executive directors, on the other hand, must always manage the conflict between their management responsibilities and their fiduciary duties as the directors in the best interests of Sanlam. Non-executive directors play a particularly important role in providing independent judgment in such circumstances.
- 16.5 Executive directors could take up other non-executive directorships, provided that these are not detrimental to their immediate responsibilities as an executive director of Sanlam and that it is approved by the Nominations Committee and the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee from a conflict of interest perspective. Director remuneration paid by such other directorships taken on, accrues to and must be paid directly to Sanlam. Deviations from this principle (if any) must be approved by the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee. On the other hand, non-executive directors should be judicious in the number of directorships they accept, in order to ensure that they do full justice to their onerous and demanding responsibilities. The Nominations Committee is available to provide guidance and assist in this regard.
- 16.6 Executive directors are in the full-time employment of Sanlam with executive functions and hence do not earn any Board fees.
- 16.7 Non-executive directors, on the other hand, are not employed by Sanlam and are free from any major business relationship with Sanlam. They should fulfil their duties at Board meetings and any other meetings of Sanlam that they are required to attend. They bring an external judgment on issues of strategy, performance, resources and standards of conduct and evaluation of performance to the Board. Courage, wisdom and independence should be the hallmark of any non-executive director acting in the best interests of Sanlam.

17 LEAD INDEPENDENT DIRECTOR ("LID")

- 17.1 Subject to the JSE LR and the requirements outlined in King IV™, the Board must appoint a senior independent non-executive director as Lead Independent Director ("LID"), to lead the Board in the following circumstances:
- 17.1.1 Where the Chair has a conflict;
- 17.1.2 The Deputy Chair will lead in the absence of the Chair and in circumstances where there is no conflict;
- 17.1.3 Serve as a sounding board for the Chair;
- 17.1.4 Act as an intermediary between the Chair and other members of the Board, if and when necessary;
- 17.1.5 Deal with shareholders' concerns where contact through the normal channels has failed to resolve concerns, or where such contact is inappropriate;

- 17.1.6 Strengthen the independence on the Board, if the Chair is not an independent non-executive member of the Board;
- 17.1.7 Preside over discussions and decision-making by the Board on matters where the Chair has a conflict of interest; and
- 17.1.8 Lead the annual performance appraisal of the Chair.

- 18.1.1 The appointment of a Group Company Secretary in public companies with a share capital is mandatory under the Companies Act and is also mandatory under the LR and King IV™. Furthermore, the Companies Act empowers the Board to appoint and/or remove as well as outlining the duties of the Group Company Secretary.
- 18.1.2 In addition to extensive statutory duties and regulatory requirements, the Group Company Secretary has an important role in the induction of new or inexperienced directors and in assisting the Chair and Group CEO in determining the annual Board plan. This includes the administration of other issues of a strategic nature at Board level.
- 18.1.3 The Board should be cognisant of the duties imposed upon the Group Company Secretary and should empower the Group Company Secretary accordingly, to enable him/her to properly fulfil those duties.
- 18.1.4 The Board should ensure that the performance, effectiveness and independence of the Group Company Secretary are evaluated annually.
- 18.1.5 The Board should disclose what Sanlam's arrangements are concerning the availability/accessibility of company secretarial services and whether it believes that those arrangements are effective.

18.2 Appointment

- 18.2.1 The Group Company Secretary is required to be appointed (or removed) by the Board as a collective.
- 18.2.2 The Board should be satisfied that the appointee has the requisite attributes, knowledge, experience and qualifications to properly discharge his/her duties.
- 18.2.3 The Group Company Secretary must be a permanent resident of the Republic, remain so while serving in that capacity.
- 18.2.4 The Group Company Secretary should have unfettered access to the Board but for reasons of independence, should maintain an arm's length relationship with the Board and the directors and accordingly, should not be a member of the Board.

18.3 Responsibilities

- 18.3.1 He/she must guide the Board, collectively, and each director individually, as to their duties and responsibilities and make them aware of all legislation and regulations relevant to the Company on which Board the directors serve.
- 18.3.2 Must ensure that the procedure for the appointment of directors is properly carried out and he/she should assist in the proper induction and orientation of directors, including assessing the specific training needs of directors and executive management in regard to their fiduciary and other responsibilities.
- 18.3.3 Report to the Board via the Chair of the Board, on all statutory duties and functions performed in connection with the Board. In regard to other duties and administrative matters, the Group Company Secretary should report to the member of executive management designated for that purpose, as is appropriate for Sanlam.

- 18.3.4 Should be available to provide comprehensive practical support and guidance to directors, with particular emphasis on supporting the non-executive directors and the Chair.
- 18.3.5 Must ensure unhindered access to information by all Board and Committee members so that they can contribute effectively to Board meetings and other discussions.
- 18.3.6 Is responsible for the compilation of Board papers and for filtering them to ensure compliance with the required standards of good governance.
- 18.3.7 The Group Company Secretary's role should also be to raise matters that may warrant the attention of the Board.
- 18.3.8 He/she must ensure compliance with all relevant statutory and regulatory requirements, having due regard to the specific business interests of Sanlam. In particular, the Group Company Secretary must also be aware of the duties set out in Section 88 of the Companies Act.
- 18.3.9 He/she must assist with carrying out corporate strategies by ensuring that the Board's decisions and instructions are clearly documented and communicated to the relevant persons.
- 18.3.10 Needs to communicate with the shareholders as appropriate and ensure that due regard is paid to their interests.
- 18.3.11 He/she should provide a central source of guidance and advice to the Board and within Sanlam on matters of ethics and good governance.

19 AUTHORITY

- 19.1 In terms of the Company's MOI, the Board has the authority to exercise all of the powers and perform any of the functions of the Company, except to the extent that the Companies Act, the LR, the MOI or other prevailing legislation provides otherwise.
- 19.2 Take independent advice in connection with their duties following an agreed-upon procedure.

20 STAKEHOLDER RELATIONS

- 20.1 The Board should assume responsibility for the governance of stakeholder management and stakeholder relationships by setting the direction for how it should be approached and conducted in Sanlam.
- 20.2 The Board should approve policy that articulates and gives effect to its direction on stakeholder relationships.
- 20.3 The Board should delegate to management the responsibility for implementation and execution of effective stakeholder relationship management.
- 20.4 The Board should exercise ongoing oversight of stakeholder relationship management and, in particular, oversee that it results in the following:
 - 20.4.1 Methodologies for identifying individual stakeholders and stakeholder groupings;
 - 20.4.2 The determination of material stakeholders based on the extent to which they affect, or are affected by the activities, outputs and outcomes of Sanlam;
 - 20.4.3 The management of stakeholder management related risks as an integral part of Sanlam's enterprise risk management framework;
 - 20.4.4 The formal mechanisms for engagement and communication with stakeholders, including the use of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and associated processes;
 - 20.4.5 The measurement of the quality of material stakeholder relationships, and appropriate responses to the outcomes.

21 MEMORANDUM OF INCORPORATION (“MOI”)

- 21.1 This Charter is not intended to replace or amend the MOI in any way. In the event of a conflict between the MOI and the Charter, the provisions of the MOI would take precedence.
- 21.2 The Charter is also not intended to provide a comprehensive summary of the applicable legal principles that are applicable to the Board, its role and/or responsibilities.
- 21.3 Board members requiring advice on any matter referred to in this Charter, are encouraged to consult the Group Company Secretary.
