Total Expense Ratio (TER): The % of the value of the Financial Product that was incurred as expenses relating to the administration of the Financial Product. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER may not necessarily be an accurate indication of future TER's.

Transaction Cost (TC): The % of the value of the Financial Product that was incurred as costs relating to the buying and selling of the assets underlying the Financial Product. Transaction Costs are a necessary cost in administering the Financial Product and impacts Financial Product returns. It should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including market returns, the type of Financial Product, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER.

Total Investment Charges (TER + TC): The % of the value of the Financial Product that was incurred as expenses.

The information in this document does not constitute financial advice as contemplated in terms of the South African FAIS Act. The use of and/or reliance on this information is at your own risk. Independent professional financial advice should be sought before making an investment decision. Any offering is made only pursuant to the relevant offering document, the Prospectus, the Supplement, the MDD, together with the current financial statements of the fund, and the relevant subscription/application forms, all of which must be read in their entirety. No offer to purchase securities will be made or accepted prior to receipt by the offeree of these documents, and the completion of all appropriate documentation. Collective investment schemes are generally medium to long term investments. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance, and the value of your investment may go down as well as up. Changes in exchange rates may have an adverse effect on the value, price or income of your investment. Collective investment Schemes are traded at ruling prices and can engage in borrowing and scrip lending. Forward pricing is used. Collective investments are calculated on a net asset value basis, which is the total market value of all assets in the fund including any income accruals and less any deductible expenses such as audit fees, brokerage and service fees. Actual investment performance of the fund and the investor will differ based on the initial fees applicable, the actual investment date, and the date of reinvestment of income as well as dividend withholding tax, if applicable. A schedule of fees and charges and maximum commissions is available on request from the AIFM or Ci. The performance of the funds depends on the underlying assets and variable market factors. The AIFM does not provide any guarantee either with respect to the capital or the return of the fund. Commission and incentives may be paid and are for the account of the manager. International investments or investments in foreign securities could be accompanied by additional risks such as potential constraints on liquidity and repatriation of funds, macroeconomic risk, political risk, foreign exchange risk, tax risk, settlement risk as well as potential limitations on the availability of market information. The AIFM retains full legal responsibility for this fund. The AIFM has the right to close the funds to new investors to manage them more efficiently in accordance with their mandates.

The portfolio management of the funds is outsourced to regulated and authorised financial services providers.
