

Fund objective

The investor will share in the excellent growth potential offered by primarily South African equities, fixed interest investments and cash securities. The investor expects maximum capital growth over a medium to long term, with moderate to moderately high volatility over the short term. The investor has a moderately aggressive risk profile, who still wants a well diversified managed option, both in terms of assets classes and asset managers. Capital growth, rather than capital security, is of primary importance to you.

How does growth takes place in the fund?

The growth of the underlying assets determines the growth in the value of yo policy. The growth is affected by the fluctuations in market conditions and do not vest.
