1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 With the passage of time the Sanlam Group (consisting of Sanlam Limited and its indirect and direct subsidiaries and associates) has evolved from a traditional insurance group to a diversified financial services group with both a local and international footprint. The Sanlam Group strives to be client centric and to treat its customers fairly, to understand the clients' needs and to provide innovative, tailored solutions to fulfil those needs. The Sanlam Group links its clients' successes to its own and will continue to be accountable for its actions with the aim of building long-term relationships that improve peoples' lives. Please note that this Manual only applies to Sanlam Emerging Markets (Pty) Limited ("SEM") in South Africa (being a member of the Sanlam Group).
- 1.2 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000, as amended (the Act) was enacted on 3 February 2000 and aims to give effect to the constitutional right of access to information: (i) subject to justifiable limitations, including limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality and effective, efficient and good governance; and (ii) in a manner which balances that right with other rights including those entrenched in the Bill of Rights in Chapter 2 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa. The purpose of the Act, amongst others, is to give effect to the constitutional right of access to information held by private bodies for the exercise of or protection of rights and to establish the procedures to give effect to that right, as swiftly and inexpensively as reasonably possible.
- 1.3 Section 51 of the Act requires a private body to compile a manual (the "Manual") which details the requisite procedural issues attached to a request for information, the prescribed rates, the requirements which such request must meet as well as the grounds for refusal or partial refusal of such request. Please refer to the sections below for more information.

2. PURPOSE OF THIS MANUAL

- 2.1 The purposes of this Manual are to:
- 2.1.1 provide a description of the available records of SEM (see section 4);
 - 2.1.2 provide a description of the personal information processing activities of SEM, as prescribed by the Act; and
 - 2.1.3 facilitate any request for information a requester may have under the Act, required for the protection or exercise of any right. Such a request may however be subject to justifiable limitations, as per Part 3, Chapter 4 of the Act.

3. WHO MAY REQUEST ACCESS TO THE INFORMATION HELD

- 3.1 This Manual is designed to facilitate any request for information from a requester (which includes a data subject as defined in the Protection of Personal Information Act, No. 4 of 2013). In terms of section 50 of the Act, a requester must be given access to any record held by a private body where:
- 3.1.1 that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
 - 3.1.2 the requester complies with the procedural requirements in terms of the Act pertaining to a request for access; and
 - 3.1.3 access to that record is not refused in terms of any of the grounds for refusal listed in the Act.
- 3.2 The abovementioned request includes access to a record containing personal information of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is being made.
- 3.3 A requester has the right to ask SEM to confirm whether or not it holds personal information of the requester, free of charge. Additionally, a requester may request that SEM provide a record or description of the personal information of the requester held by SEM as well as the information regarding the identity of all third parties or categories of third parties, who have, or have had, access to the personal information:
- 3.3.1 within a reasonable time,
 - 3.3.2 at the prescribed fee, if any,
 - 3.3.3 in a reasonable manner and format; and
 - 3.3.4 in a form that is generally understandable.
- 3.4 Please note that if a requester requires a record or description of the personal information held by SEM, a written estimate of the fee (determined in accordance with the Regulations of the Act) will be provided to the requester and a deposit may be required.
- 3.5 A requester, in relation to a private body, means:
- 3.5.1 any person, including, but not limited to, a public body or an official thereof, making a request for access to a record of that private body; or
 - 3.5.2 a person acting on behalf of the person contemplated above.

3.6 Should a request be made on behalf of another person or entity, the requester must submit details and proof of the capacity in which the requester is making a request, to the satisfaction of SEM.

3.7 Where a public body requests access to information from SEM, for the exercise or protection of any rights, other than its rights, it must be acting in good faith and in the interest of the public.

4. TYPES OF RECORDS HELD

4.1 To the extent applicable to SEM, records are held and made available in terms of the legislation listed in Annexure “A”.

6.6 Sanlam's security practices

Information Security deals with SEM's information and IT security capability and practices.

Information Security deals specifically with the preservation of:

- 6.6.1 Confidentiality: ensuring that information is accessible only to those authorised to have access;
- 6.6.2 Integrity: safeguarding the accuracy and completeness of information and processing methods; and

6.6.3 Availability: ensuring that authorised users have access to information and associated assets when required.

Information Security is achieved by implementing a suitable set of responsibilities, controls, standards, processes and systems to ensure that the Information Security objectives of SEM are met, and as such Information Security is a tight domain in SEM, that ensures:

- Rules are set for secure conduct and earning trust.
- The rules are followed by participants.
- A relationship of trust is established between external parties and SEM.
- The security intelligence network that extends outside the organisation.
- Business is enabled because participants know it is safe to participate and know what is expected from them and what can be expected from other participants.
- Adequate monitoring and detection capabilities are maintained.
- Organised responses to incidents are effective and followed through into learning.
